

Theory exams (13.06.2018)

1st Year

NB If you would like to view your paper, you should go to the 'ricevimento' of the lecturer that marked it, as specified in the rightmost column by way of the abbreviations: R (= Rizzato). NB This may NOT be the lecturer of the group ("Frazionamento") you belong to. Please remember that you need to have your final mark signed by the lecturer whose Frazionamento you belong to. Your Frazionamento appears in your study plan.

Abbreviations: F = Fail, R = Rizzato

If your History of English score is less than 18, you can still pass English Language I provided that the average of your History of English mark and your practical mark results in overall score of 18 or above (each component is worth 50%).

If your History of English score is less than 18 but your combined score is at least 18, then you have the option of 'accepting' this final mark or 'rejecting' it. In the latter case, you will have to resit the History of English exam.
